

MAKERERE HIGH SCHOOL MIGADDE

Senior one

Activity of integration

Name: stream

Due to the invention of plastics, man has found out plastics to be convenient for most of everyday life activities. These include; Packaging materials due to its versatility, durability, and ability to preserve and protect goods, also in construction used as in pipes, insulation materials and many others. Community members defines that its worthy noting that while plastics have many practical applications, their environmental impact and issues related to waste management and pollution are significant concerns.

Knowledge; materials

Task.

- As a senior one student, write a presentation to be delivered to the society members about the environmental impacts of improper disposal of plastics