SECTION A

Item 1

Trade is the foundation of modern developments. Britain, united states of America (USA), Spain, china, India among others dominate the world because of their long tradition of trade.

During the 19th century, the people of East Africa participated in well-organized trade similar to that of the Europeans, Americans and Asians, however, their level of development has lagged behind up to date. Two historians came to address the students of your school on the topic “Precolonial Trade benefits to East Africa”. One of them strongly believes that precolonial trade was important in the development of modern East Africa, while the other strongly argued that precolonial trade left nothing to show in development of modern East Africa. They left and your history teacher asked you to address your class on the same topic taking one side.

Task

Giving reasons and examples to support your answer, explain to the class whether pre-colonial trade in East Africa contributed to modern development of east Africa or not.

Item 2

East Africa was under colonial rule for close to 70 years (1894 – 1964). Today, many people of East Africa still blame the Europeans who colonized East Africa for the under development seen in the region. They mention various forms of exploitations, lack of commitment and outright brutality against the people of East Africa as the root cause of the under development. To some people colonialists set the foundation on which East Africa was able to develop like other former European colonies in Asia and Latin America.

A public seminar has been organized in your sub-county to celebrate the 64th independence anniversary of your country and you have been invited to make a speech.

Task

Giving relevant examples, prepare a speech that gives a correct understanding of colonial rule in east Africa.

SECTION B

Attempt one item in this section

Item 3

During the previous local council elections in Uganda, it was reported that voter turnout was significantly low. This was attributed to the fact that a number of people did not value local government systems and felt they were not important. As a result, the ministry of local government embarked on sensitizing the people about them you have identified to be part of the team to address the people in different parts of the country.

Task

write an essay you will use to sensitize people in different parts of the country about the above systems.

Item 4

A section of the people of Kalongo village is against activities of a Christian religious group from Germany. They petitioned the local government of the area to block its operations in their community citing challenges like noise pollution, fraud by pastors, and spread of gay-related activities among others. However, majority of the people in the area are of the view that despite the above challenges, religion plays a significant role in the development of the community as such; the Christian group should be left to carry out their activities.

The white missionary preaching to a group of Christians.

Task

Write an essay to convince the people in Kalongo to welcome the activities of the Christian group.
