INSTRUCTIONS TO CANDIDATES:

- This paper consists of two sections A and B. It has four examination items.
- Section A is compulsory.
- Answer one item from Section B.
- Answer three examination items in all.
- Any additional item answered will not be scored.

SECTION A

Answer all items in this section.

Item 1.

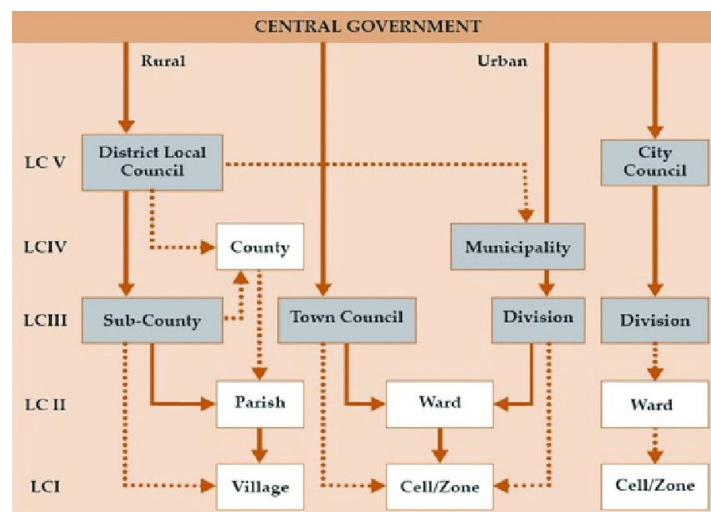

Several people from Buganda and Teso regions in Uganda have lived in the United States of America (USA) for over fifty years consequently, their children and grandchildren have adopted American customs and no longer value their own cultural traditions. The heads of these families have organized an annual cultural convention/meeting for their children and invited cultural leaders from their societies. These leaders have asked you to prepare an attention presentation for the event.

Task:

Address on the important aspects the cultural leaders should emphasize in the above convention/meeting.

Item 2.

You have been appointed by the president of the Republic of Uganda as the new Minister for Karamoja. However, because you are not a karamojong, the people there resist you. You don't want to lose your job because of their resistance and you want to convince the President who appointed you that you were the right choice for the region.

Task:

Defend the administrative method you shall adopt in Karamoja that will help you do your job to the satisfaction of both the residents and your boss.

SECTION B

Attempt one item from this section.

Item 3.

A certain Minister is suggesting the drafting of the new constitution because this one has been over amended which shows its weakness. However, a certain member of parliament has opposed it urging that amending the constitution doesn't show its weakness but rather responding to a new need of the country, supplementing on rights of the people and adjust the provisions that are inadequate. An old person doesn't remember the last time the constitution was amended and the key changes introduced.

Task:

Prepare an essay guiding on the above situation.

Item 4.

In a village meeting organized to discuss the strategies that can help village members to develop, the secretary to the council Mrs. Nakalembe explained that Ugandans are lazy and don't want to work.

She went on to say that in 1960's, Uganda was almost at the same pace of development with South Korea but now South Korea is far ahead of Uganda in terms of economic growth and development. The council wants to find out how South Korea left Uganda.
